Process Praise & Adapting Over Time

As you get to know your student better over the course of the year, you 'll be able to tailor your process praise to their strengths and challenges. Here's how that could look:

What strategy can we use to figure this out? Let's try the Word Chop.

It's okay to make mistakes. They help us learn! With more practice it will get easier.

I see that you're sitting right in front of the camera so I can see you. Can you also put your whiteboard down to help you focus on reading?

It looks like the Word Chop strategy really helped you figure out that word. You should keep trying it!

You kept trying to spell that word even when it was tough and you made a mistake.

Good job putting your whiteboard away when it was distracting you. That really helped you get the word.

Nice job remembering to use the Word Chop strategy when you got stuck! That really paid off.

It didn't take you as many tries to spell the word with the silent E. See how your hard work is paying off?

Thanks for remembering to put your whiteboard away before moving on to the reading slides!
